UP TO DATE SPORTING NEWS AND COMMENT ROBERT EDGREN.

AND THE MEAL HAS AGREED WITH THE GIANTS' MANAGER.

Batting Rally Which Scores Five Runs Settles Hopes of Hanlon's Trolleymen.

SCORE BY INNINGS.

10
	Pittsburg.
23	Clarke, If.
633
a	Ganley, rf.
200	Leach, of.
32
90	Wagner, as.
y
100	Brain, 3b.
nt	Hillebrand.
2
900	Ritchey. 2b.
g	Gibson, c.
k
	Phillippi =
883	Umpire-Emslie
200	Chiphre-Emaile

CORRESPONDENT wants an answer to the question: '|Why is football?"

ARE BEATEN BY PIRATES

BATTING ORDER.

α	OF THE LOCAL PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF THE PA
ĝ	Pittsburg.
ı	Clarke, If.
ä	Ganley, rf.
ğ	Leach, cf.
ă	Wagner, ss.
g	Brain, 3b.
3	Hillebrand,
g	Ritchey. 2b.
ä	Gibson, c.
ì	Phillippi.
۰	I'mnire_Emelia

burg camp greeted the Brooklyns on and Lync their arrival here this afternoon for the triple to difinal series. Pittsburg rooters have not forgotten that awful blow of three straight from the New Yorks. Plungers are counting up. Many were hard hit. Shad Gwilliam, the big better, took New Heavy 1 looked as Hummel of

(Special to The Evening World.)

EXPOSITION PARK, PITTSBURG, bunted safely, but Ritchey was out.

Pa., Sept. 28.—Gloomy times in the Pittsburg camp greeted the Brooklyns on their arrival here this afternoon for the triple to deep rilight and Clarke scored the triple to deep rilight and Clarke scored famed. EVE

PLANK'S CURVES GIANTS REACH

He has caten the canary.

TRAVIS MAKES LOWEST SCORE

ield of Ninety-five Starts in Qualifying Round of Nassau Country Club's Open Fall PROCTOR'S SUTERBAHOWA Tournament.

There was no lack of starters to day in the open fall tournament of the Nas-sau Country Club, as nearly all of the nincty-five entrants were on hand early, The qualifying round was at shirty-six the qualifying found was at mility-size holes and lasted throughout the day, the first sixteen qualifying for the Nassau Country Cup, the second six-teen for the North Country Club and

FERILD SO THEATRE BY AY & 35 th Be. SAM BERNARD THE BOLLIGEING

AMUSEMENTS.

TAR PROCTOR'S B'WAY

THE SPORTING DUCHESS

58th St.